Coquillade Provence Resort & Spa

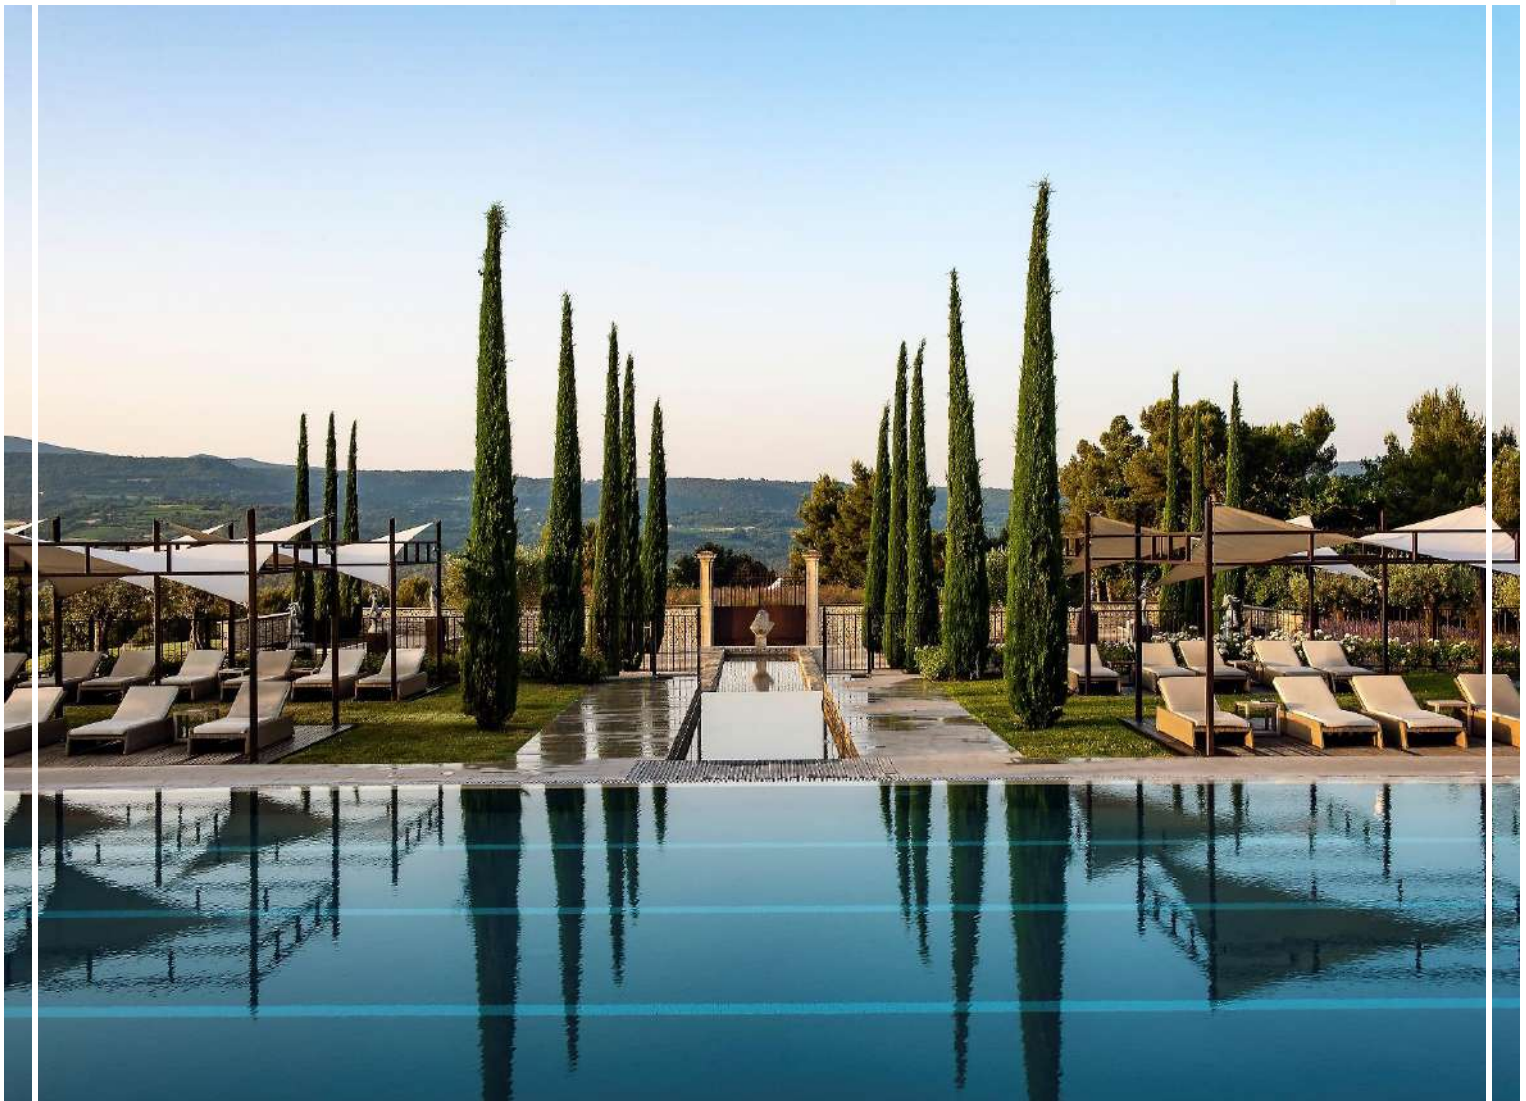

Coquillade Provence Resort & Spa

“If there is a cyclists’ paradise, it is here” ... proclaimed LeFigaro in April 2021, while including us in their list of ‘most beautiful hotels for cycling enthusiasts’.

We couldn’t agree more!

Coquillade Provence Resort & Spa was born from the passion of a man, the late Andy Rihs, in this idyllic destination in the South of France, surrounded by lavender fields, forest and vineyards in 2016.

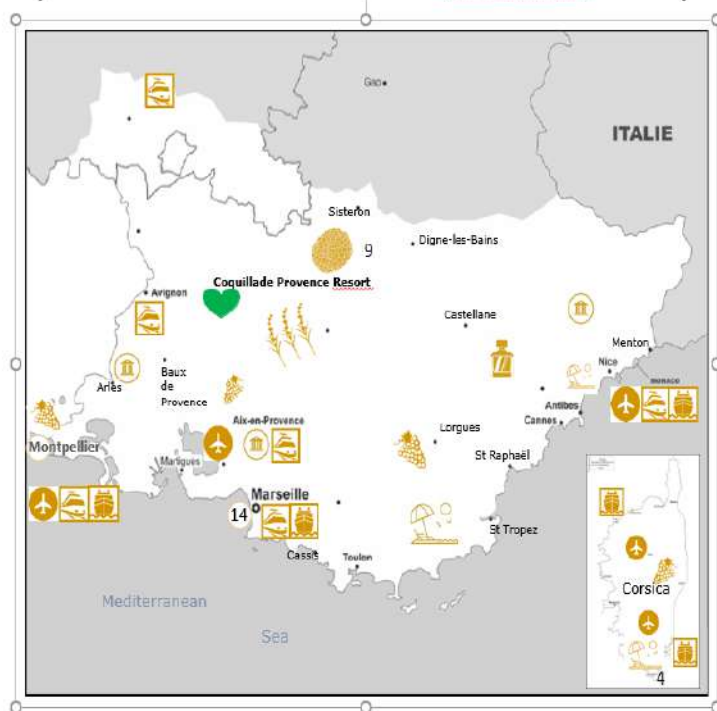

He developed this 11th century hamlet, said to be founded by the Cisterian monks of the Abbey of Senanque, into a natural heaven labeled Relais & Châteaux with 63 rooms and suites (68 in 2022), three restaurants and two bars, cycling centre, 2000m2 Spa and Aureto vinery.
