RESTAURANTS

At Fancourt the appreciation of good food and wine is regarded almost as highly as the game of golf. As such, the estate's four restaurants each caters to a different occasion, from relaxed family suppers to more bespoke experiences with fine wines to match. Dress Code: Smart casual in all restaurants

HENRY WHITE'S

Toast to a special evening filled with warm hospitality, creative cuisine and the historic surrounds of what was once an elegant family home. For the discerning palate, Henry White's offers culinary excellence, superb service and a stylish ambience in which guests can enjoy an enchanting evening out, filled with delicious flavours that will linger long after they've left the warm-hearted embrace of this sophisticated dining venue. Savour hearty South African flavours and a menu featuring local favourites paired with the finest wines when you dine in this elegant dining destination.

LA CANTINA

"First we eat, then we do everything else" – this Italian mantra is embodied by La Cantina, which offers modern, healthy Italian cuisine combined with the warmth of Mediterranean hospitality. Enjoy a casual dining experience ranging from homemade pasta to succulent steaks. Whether you're enjoying dinner with your significant other or treating the whole family, La Cantina brings the generosity of the Mediterranean to life in its comfortable dining setting. What's more, as Fancourt's breakfast restaurant of choice, La Cantina serves a wholesome breakfast buffet and extensive à la carte menu to set the tone for the rest of the day.

THE LINKS AT FANCOURT (A PRIVATELY OWNED CLUB)

Sculpted into what Gary Player has described as his greatest feat as a course designer, The Links is the golfing hallmark of the Fancourt estate. Featuring an undulating, windswept terrain and dune-style landscape, the course is the collaborative handiwork of golfing icon, Gary Player, course designer, Phil Jacobs and Fancourt's owner, Dr Hasso Plattner. The Links is currently voted number one in the country by Golf Digest South Africa.
